

and stood over him in a menacing manner whilst he typed part of it. Dolo in turn paid by cheque £50 to Davies, well knowing the contents of the relevant document. There is, of course, ample evidence of association between these three men and their obvious campaign of intended use of violence.

50) In my view due consideration should be given to possible further charges of conspiracy and offences under the Race Relations Act 1965 against all three prisoners. There are obviously other persons involved and enquiries are being continued to establish their identity and obtain necessary evidence of their complicity.

51) During the course of my enquiries I have received reliable information from an informant within the organisation of the Black Power Group, that in the near future they intend to use explosives to blow up Police boxes, the one situated in Hyde Park in particular. They also intend to copy the example of the Irish Republican Army who, in the past, attempted to blow up Government buildings by the use of explosives. This information is supported in my view by the booklet and explosive formula found in the possession of Egbuna at the time of his arrest.
